

the goals set by the pioneers of Croydon C.U. A special mention must be made, in way of honouring those who were entrusted with the guidance of the infant C.U. They were:

First Board Of Directors

Dorrian Herbert (Chairman), Henry Goffe (V/C 'man), Chris Gordon (Treas), Manley Coke (Secty), Eric Jeckles (Ed. Officer).

First Credit Committee:

Carl Hall (C'man), Mrs Shirley Aldred (Secty), and Charles O'Connor.

First Supervisory Committee:

Ashley Gayle (C'man), James Barnett (Secty), and Alvin Walters.

First General Purposes Committee:

Lloyd Bascom (C'man), Mrs Shirley Aldred (Secty), Mrs Joan Davis, Mrs Grace Gayle, and Maurice Aaron.

Special mention must be made of Mr. Chris Gordon who has held the Office of Treasurer for the past 15 years. On this our 15th Anniversary we say a special and warm thank you. Chris has continued to set a high standard of devotion and integrity for his colleagues to emulate.

We also acknowledge Mr. Len Bushell who has served as President for five years, 1976 to 1981. Many changes and obstacles were encountered and overcome during those years in which Croydon did not only grow but continued to attract dedicated people into the membership and management teams.

In 1979 the Government ^{passed} the Credit Unions Act. This required that Croydon had to be registered under new rules and a clearly defined Common Bond. Whereas before membership was opened to anyone willing to join, the new act confined membership to those living within the Borough of Croydon with Caribbean associations. Croydon Co-op Credit Union was re-registered as Croydon Caribbean Credit Union Ltd. Reg. No. 38C on the 29th August 1980. These changes have brought new demands on the Management team, to which they are slowly but successfully responding.
